JOB DESCRIPTION
USA WORK & TRAVEL PROGRAM

Philadelphia Disclaimer

Participants should be aware Philadelphia is a melting pot. You will come into contact with all kinds of people and ways of life. All ages, shapes and sizes, levels of wealth, backgrounds, religions, sexual preferences, and ethnicities.

Participants who choose Philadelphia, PA should have the experience and knowledge necessary to deal with the potential dangers of life in an urban environment. Participants should use common sense, stay with a partner or friend while walking a night and never carry valuables. It is recommended participants download the Companion App on their smartphones and let a friend know where they are.

Housing in Philadelphia ranges from $100 - $120 per participant, per week. Typically, landlords will require a security deposit on arrival. This security deposit helps to insure landlords can protect themselves from any loss. Including utility bills: electricity, water, & natural gas. Participants who decide to leave their housing prior to the end of their program will NOT see any portion of their security deposit returned.

Program Coordinators cannot negotiate the return of deposits, unless participants have completed the full contract and no damage has occurred.

As the nation's fifth largest city, Philadelphia is full of architecture, history, culture, attractions, and art. Making it one of the nation's most dynamic cities. The birthplace of the US, Philadelphia is a great place to live while participating in Work & Travel. Close to New York City & Washington D.C without high cost of living.

No job, or hours at a job, can be 100% guaranteed. Regardless of what your work contract states, there is always a possibility that you will work more or less hours. Participants should expect to have lower hours during the first two weeks of training.

Some days will be slower than others. It is common practice in United States restaurants for employees to be sent home early if business does not allow for a full staff.

Tips for obtaining hours: The concept of time plays a great role in American culture. Late once or twice may be unavoidable but being late consistently makes you unreliable. Employers are looking for participants who are on time and come to work as scheduled. These participants will be sure to have 32 hours or more, with the best shifts and weekly hours.

Second jobs are available in Atlantic City. Second jobs must be approved by CHI before starting work. The second job offer will be provided in your welcome letter. Your CHI program coordinator will be available to help you with this process. Please note, your second job can not conflict with your primary job. If you have a conflict, your primary employer cannot guarantee 32 hours.

FOOD ALLERGIES

Participants who accept the position at Johnny Rockets must not have any food allergies. Participants must be physically able push, pull, and lift 15 kgs. Participants must be able to work with pork. Participants must be willing to clean and remove rubbish.
